Hainesville Lutheran is a fellowship of Christians, empowered by the Gospel, who share their faith through witness, service and hospitality.

“Are we there yet?” “How much longer” Whyyyyyyy?” Sound familiar? Visions of your own childhood or of family trips with your children? Or is it the sound that emanates from within the depths of our hearts?

“How long, O Lord? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me? How long must I take counsel in my soul and have sorrow in my heart all the day?” Psalm 13:1-2

I have been reading the Psalms as a part of my devotions and have found every type of human emotion within their verses. Wonder, praise, fear, sorrow, pain, doubt, anger, confusion, love, honor, trust, confidence, awe and so many more. Even when the psalms are full of human sorrow and fear, there is a point in which the psalmist says...and yet, as his thoughts turn back to his trust and faith in God the creator.

It is in remembering the qualities of God, and remembering His mercies and forgiveness that we can begin to hold on to hope and can find joy again. “But I have trusted in your steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in your salvation. I will sing to the Lord, because he has dealt bountifully with me” Psalm 13:5-6

I have spent more time on Facebook than I have in the past. I am enamored with the music that all kinds of famous and not so famous people have been posting. I laugh at the silly way families have re-worked famous songs to reflect their time at home. I have heard Yo-yo Ma play his cello, Carole King sing of her sorrow at losing friends, and I listen to a live concert every noon put on by members of the premier Army Field band. When would I have stopped to celebrate their creativity? When would we

PSALM 91 1-6; 11-14 (NIV translation)

<sup>2</sup>I will say of the LORD, “He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.”

<sup>3</sup>Surely he will save you from the fowler’s snare and from the deadly pestilence.

<sup>4</sup>He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.

<sup>5</sup>You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day,

<sup>11</sup>For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways;

<sup>12</sup>they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.

<sup>13</sup>You will tread on the lion and the cobra; you will trample the great lion and the serpent.

<sup>14</sup>“Because he loves me,” says the LORD, “I will rescue him; have been blessed by the talents of so many wonderful human beings? I am in awe of this almost instantaneous outpouring of care and love that is flooding the Internet.

There was a random thought that had been passed around on Facebook the other day that spoke to my heart.

“Nothing should go back to normal. Normal wasn't working. If we go back to the way things were, we will have lost the lesson. May we rise up and do better.”

So, I was just on Facebook..... And if you are interested in outstanding music for your Easter Sunday.... I see that Andrea Bocelli (famous opera singer) will perform live from Milan's empty Duomo Cathedral. It will be offered as a global live-stream on his YouTube channel. He will be accompanied by cathedral organist Emmanuele Vianelli and it will take place, of course, without a live audience. The performance titled “Bocelli: Music for Hope” is set to take place at 7 PM in Italy, the singer's deeply afflicted nation. That time slot will have it streaming at 1 PM Eastern time zone and 10 AM Pacific Time zone. IT WILL BE SEEN EXCLUSIVELY ON BOCELLI'S YOUTUBE CHANNEL. Check it out now on YouTube and set a reminder for yourself.

As I close, I am listening again to two Chicago Symphony players on cello and piano, in a split screen, playing Leonard Cohen's Hallelujah. God's peace comes in all kinds of moments. I miss you all, but am celebrating humanity at its best. Peace be with you. -Paula Eggert

What Have You Been Up To?

Hope From Our Friends

Here's where we get a chance to share with each other what this time at home has allowed us to catch up on, or things we've found that made us chuckle, or made us smile and helped us keep hope alive.

- Margery Reynolds sent in a picture from her front yard. Doesn't it make you smile ?
- From Marla Vogel: When we first went into our safe at home mode, she checked in with her grandchildren and had them show her (via smartphone) their new school desks at home
- Pete & Marlene Larson appreciate the bulletin each week and the prayer list that is included
- PLEASE SEND YOUR THOUGHTS– STORIES– HINTS TO PAULA AT officehlc12@gmail.com

Spring reminds us of God's eternal rebirth and hope. Thank you Margery for the picture from your yard.

Hainesville still at Work

Making Face Masks

I'm sure by now most of you are aware that we need to wear a face mask when out in a public place where social distancing might be a challenge (such as grocery stores, pharmacies, even going for a walk in a popular areas.) There has been a plea for masks and protective smocks for hospital workers. I believe that a number of you have jumped on that bandwagon and have found a number of patterns on Pinterest or YouTube or your favorite web site. Pastor Trent saw a Facebook Post from George Sincock. He is also making masks with a goal of 1000. In the post, he indicated he needs help.

Challenge for others to make some? LORI FLICK WILL BE HAPPY TO MAKE MASKS FOR ANY HAINSVILLE MEMBER THAT WOULD LIKE ONE. PLEASE EMAIL HER OR CALL HER. CONTACT INFORMATION IS IN THE NEW CHURCH DIRECTORY.

The Prayer Squad

During this time of Being the Church at Home and being Safer at Home practicing social distancing, a group of 10 women of the church have stepped forward to help keep us connected as a community of faith. Each Prayer Squad member has been assigned her own small group of church members to contact each week for a conversation just to check in and see how you are doing. If you desire, they will pray with you during the call. If you have any specific questions or needs, they will do their best to address them either themselves or by referral. I am available for pastoral care emergencies and Church Council President Jim Vogel is available for general congregational questions and concerns. I would like to thank Lana Ferry, Pam Freiberg, Deb Grunwald, Linda Freier, Vicki Hannemann, Linda Kohn, Jan Shusta, Gloria LaPlante, Margery Reynolds, Marla Vogel for serving on this important ministry during this uncertain time. When these women call, they are doing it out of love, care, and concern. If they are unable to reach you and leave a voice mail message, please return their calls so they can keep you connected.

-Pastor Trent

Transformation POWER

Just as the caterpillar becomes a butterfly,
God transforms us from old to new.

Directions: Cross out the backward letters. Write the remaining letters in order in the spaces below to complete 2 Corinthians 5:17, NIV.

BANGYONFE, COHRISJOT, NJEW,
CPEARTINOSN, JCOZME, GOLFD,
DFOG, WMSOCL, NSONIBARBP,
GOONEB, SNEZW, HBERGE

Therefore, if _____ is in _____,
the _____ has _____:

The _____ has _____,
the _____ is _____!

CROSS CRAFT

Make this special cross as a reminder of Jesus' death and resurrection.

What you need:

- Adult help
- Piece of wood
- 5 nails
- Hammer
- 2 balls of yarn (blue and yellow)

- What you do:
1. Hammer the nails into the wood to form a cross shape (see example).
  2. Tie the blue yarn to the bottom nail. Wrap it up and around the top nail and back down to the bottom nail. Then wrap it around the middle nail and around the side nails. Repeat until the yarn is wrapped about halfway up the exposed nails.
  3. Repeat step two with the yellow yarn. Wrap it around the nails until only the heads are visible.

STAYING CONNECTED THROUGH "ZOOM"

As some of you may be aware, there was a warning issued regarding ZOOM's security. An email has been sent out to all meeting leaders stating that a password is now ALWAYS required and a waiting room is also required for all meetings. Essentially, this is a double security measure. You will need to enter the password in the invitation and I will need to 'let you in' to the meeting.

Hope this reassures you that ZOOM is a pretty secure way to communicate.

On a personal side - my family communicates with ZOOM, all of the synod meetings with the bishop is conducted through ZOOM, the Door County pastors communicate through ZOOM as well as other churches who conduct meetings during this time. Jessica held her St. John book club last week and had a great time seeing everyone and had no issues as well.

I just wanted to share this latest info with all of you.
-Pastor Trent

Many schools, book groups, Bible study groups, families, etc. are using this to chat in real time at the same time. I actually "zoomed" my family Sunday night and we all got to see each other as we caught up with how things were going. It was a bit of a free-for-all since we were excited to see each other, but its quite do-able with a bit of careful conversation. My music teacher-daughter uses it every day to check in with her students, in a group of about 12 per group.

The ZOOM app can be downloaded onto any computer /laptop/ tablet/ desktop. If you don't want to download the app, you can access a zoom group through any invitation that would come to you from a group leader. Its very easy and user friendly and there is a free version that gives you 40 minutes of free use.

SETTING UP A ZOOM ACCOUNT

1. Go to <https://zoom.us>
2. In the upper right-hand corner, you'll see a blue button: "SIGN UP, IT'S FREE"
3. Click the button and follow the instructions to set up an account with your email address and a password. If you are prompted to install the app, please do so as it works better that way.
4. You might want to test your connection to zoom
5. If you have problems connecting to ZOOM, please contact the ZOOM HELP CENTER. There are also some instructional tutorial videos you can watch.

From Jesus Always Embracing Joy in His Presence by Sarah Young

April 7th

"I give eternal life to you, and you will never perish; no one will snatch you out of My hand. This is astonishingly good news for all who know Me as Savior. Your promised inheritance is far more glorious than anything you can imagine! The gift of eternal life provides light that shines even in your darkest days. So let this brightness beckon you onward, protecting you from discouragement. Refuse to let hard circumstances or the wickedness of the world drag you down. Instead, look to the glory that awaits you. See it sparkling in the distance, just beyond the horizon.

You may have to go through some deep waters on your journey, but remember: I will be with you when you pass through the waters. They will not sweep over you. Keep holding My hand in trusting dependence—confident that I love you and nothing will be able to separate you from Me. Rather than dreading the challenging times ahead of you, seek to enjoy the adventure of journeying with Me through your life."
