JANUARY 2019 WINTER EDITION

Is a picture really worth a thousand words? I asked myself that question last week Tuesday. When I arrived at church that morning, the crew from Conrad Schmitt Studios was working on the final touches of the stained glass window installation that the members of the church had been anticipating since the congregation voted to move forward with fund raising for the project at the annual meeting this past February. Generous gifts were made and in a short period of time, the money needed was raised. On Tuesday, the south wall of the sanctuary was transformed into a brilliant and beautiful work of art as the radiant beams of sunlight pressed through the stained glass and illuminated the open space with a vibrant display of colors. It was a sight to behold. The scene of Jesus as the Good Shepherd, the Alpha and the Omega, and the dove in flight stir up emotions too rich for mere words.

Later that afternoon, Judy Gartman, one of our talented keyboard accompanists, was in the sanctuary practicing on the Clavinova for the upcoming Advent and Christmas Eve Worship services. The fresh scent of pine emanated from the well-decorated Christmas tree. The traditional decorations – the Nativity scene, the Advent wreath, and the poinsettias also adorned this Holy space. I soaked it all in. The sights, sounds, and scents of Christmas filled the air. It was like a Norman Rockwell painting of the “Little Church with a Big Heart” at Christmastime. So is this picture worth a thousand words? In my humble opinion, I would have to say “No.” A thousand is not enough. I’m not quite sure how one would even begin to attempt to quantify, or to sufficiently put into words, the deep meaning of this interior landscape of

FROM THE PASTOR:

The Light of Christ

In this season of Epiphany

Hainesville Lutheran Church.

This was sacred space that I had entered into to be with God in prayer, in Holy conversation. Living our lives in relationship with God requires time for this. Time for quiet. Time for stillness. Time for breathing in God's presence. I would invite and encourage you to take time for yourselves to find that sacred space, that quiet time with God, and to listen to that small still voice. In the frenetic pace of the Christmas season, it can be a challenge to find that quiet time for deep and meaningful conversations with God against the backdrop of 24/7 planning, preparing, and participating, but 2019 is fast approaching. People will be making their New Year's resolutions soon. Perhaps one resolution we can all commit to is spending more quiet time in God's loving presence in Holy conversation. If you are like me and sometimes just don't know where to begin, try using our new "Taking Faith Home" inserts that are in the bulletin each week. They just may help you to get started and deepen your conversations with God. If you have a hard time finding that sacred space for some quiet time with God, I know just the place where there is a picturesque landscape that's worth far more than a thousand words.

Peace and Blessings,

Pastor Trent

Reading resolutions

Every January, many Christians resolve to read the entire Bible in one year. That's a worthy goal, but God doesn't require us to read a certain number of verses or chapters per day. Instead, he tells us to simply be in his Word – and thus be with him – so he can grow our faith, light our path and assure us of his love and forgiveness. God's Word is a precious gift, but we need to “unwrap” it!

F. B. Meyer offers this helpful advice for a new year of discovering (and rediscovering!) Scripture: “Read the Bible, not as a newspaper, but as a home letter. If a cluster of heavenly fruit hangs within reach, gather it. If a promise lies upon the page as a blank check, cash it. If a prayer is recorded, appropriate it and launch it as a feathered arrow from the bow of your desire. If an example of holiness gleams before you, ask God to do as much for you. If the truth is revealed ... entreat that its brilliance may ever irradiate ... your life.”

From Jim Vogel, Council President

Please be thinking about helping us to fill the following church council offices for 2019. They are President (2 year term), Worship and Music (3 year term), Social Concerns (3 year term) and Nominating Committee (1 year term). Please pray and think about serving your church in one of these positions. If you're interested, please contact Lana Ferry, Irene Thorson or John Breider.

Books Belief Belonging

The book to be reading for February is titled “Being Mortal: Medicine and what matters in the end” by Atul Gawande. The author tackles the hardest challenge of his profession: how medicine can not only improve life but also the process of its ending.

Lessons in wise faith

“The Magi teach us true faith,” said Martin Luther. Given the obstacles they encountered, we would understand if they had given up altogether!

First, the travelers were “off the mark,” coming to Jerusalem to seek a newborn king in a “royal palace.” Then, directed to Bethlehem, the wise men found a sight “so utterly out of keeping with a king” — a poor young woman and child, in a “poor hut” — that one might expect them to head straight home. “But,” declares Luther, “with a great, strong and full faith they ... follow the word of the prophet and the witness of the star in all purity of heart,” bowing to worship and honor the Savior.

—Based on Luther's sermon for the Festival of the Epiphany (1522), Luther's Works

From Taking Faith Home:

January 6, 2019

Jesus' birth is for all the world

Hymn of the Week: The First Noel

Caring Conversations: Discuss in your home, small group, or use for personal reflections

- What is the furthest you've ever traveled from home?
- What have you learned by traveling from home?
- In the story of the wise men from the East coming to pay homage to baby Jesus, God is announcing that in God's son, salvation is brought to all. How does God's action in Jesus help you look at and appreciate different customs and cultures you have seen?

Devotions: Read Ephesians 3: 1-12

This passage lifts up the important themes for Epiphany Day. The Apostle Paul expresses humility at being included in God's plan of salvation, a plan that includes the Gentiles, therefore, all people of the earth. Just as the wise men from the East represent those people not from Israel, so God's love reached far beyond any national boundary. For foreign wise men to follow a star and reach Bethlehem, too, represents the greater mystery of God's work in a little one born to a peasant family to be worshiped by the rulers of the earth. The visit of the wise men changes everything. Strangers become family. Rulers are humbled. The humble are exalted, and through the birth of Jesus. God's love reaches the ends of the world. Think about ways you have seen God's love reaching the ends of the earth today.

Pray: God of the nations, you unite all the people of the earth through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Help us to recognize in the face of others your saving work for all people. Give us hearts to share the mystery of your will and prove your love with all that you have made through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Service:

In Matthew 2:9-11, the wise men followed a star and "when they saw the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy." They entered the house where the star stopped and saw Mary and the child. They knelt, honored, and worshipped Jesus and gave him gifts. God guided the wise men to Jesus with a star. What guides you to Jesus today? Name ways you can be "a star" to guide others to Jesus through your actions and words.

Rituals and traditions:

Epiphany is an older tradition than Christmas for recognizing the birth of Jesus. Many places around the globe have some form of a Three Kings' Cake, an Epiphany cake or bread that is made to celebrate the visit of the wise men and honor Christ's birth. Buy or make a Three Kings' Cake or bread and enjoy this treat as part of your Epiphany Day celebrations.

Beginning in Advent, we started something new. There has been a weekly insert for you to take home that is a resource for a daily devotional and time to have "caring conversations" within your household. There are Bible readings, a scripture verse to memorize each week, meal time prayers, suggestions for service opportunities, caring conversation starters, and a devotion. This resource is to be used as a way to keep our conversations going each day about seeing God active in our daily lives, our community and our world. Let us start a new spiritual practice of faith conversations in our homes as we live out an active faith in our daily lives.

The resource comes from Milestones Ministry. You can learn more about them at www.milestonesministry.org

January 2019

Daily Bible Readings Jan 6th—12th

- Sunday Matthew 2: 1-12
(Wise men come to worship Jesus)
- Monday Isaiah 60: 1-6
(Nations will come to the light)
- Tuesday Ephesians 3: 1-12
(Paul's mission to the Gentiles)
- Wednesday Daniel 2: 17-49
(Nebuchadnezzar's dream)
- Thursday John 1:1-18
(The Word became flesh)
- Friday 1 John 1:1-10
(God is Light)
- Saturday Psalm 72:1-7
(Prayer for a righteous king)
- Sunday Luke 3: 15-17, 21-22
(The baptism of Jesus)

Verse for this week

"That is, the Gentiles have become fellow heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel."
Ephesians 3:6 (NRSV)

A prayer for the week:

God of justice and strength, may we bring our lives before you with treasures of the heart just as the wise men came before Jesus with gold, frankincense and myrrh. Amen

Meal time prayer:

Like wise men from far away, we come to Christ with joy this day. To our Provider and our King, gifts of thanks and praise we bring. Amen.

A blessing to give:

May God bless you and guide you to Christ today and fill you with joy and peace.

A prayer for new beginnings

The season of Epiphany

In his book Awed to Heaven, Rooted in Earth (Fortress Press), Walter Brueggemann writes in an Epiphany poem:

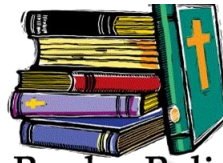

... this is a time to be born.
 So we turn to you, God of our life
 God of all our years,
 God of our beginning....
 We dare pray that you will do for us
 and among us and through us
 what is needful for our newness.
 Give us the power to be receptive,
 to take the newness you give ....
 There is a time to be born, and it is now.
 We sense the pangs and groans of your newness.
 Come here now in the name of Jesus. Amen.

How fitting that the Epiphany season and the new year coincide! Epiphany reveals a new King, the beginning of his ministry, his new disciples, his first healings, his "new teaching – with authority" (Mark 1:27). We, too, experience newness, now and year-round. But newness can be tough. So we trust that God, who "[makes] all things new" while banishing "mourning and crying and pain" (Revelation 21:4-5), walks with us in this new year – and always.

Books Belief Belonging

TALLAK! immigrant by ML Forier tells the story of the everyday lives of 18th and 19th century immigrants. They loved their home country, but didn't have much time to mourn that loss, as they worked and loved and lived in the country they had chosen to begin their new lives.

They leave their country and family, their customs and traditions. They leave their dead, buried in the local church cemetery. They hear languages unknown to them, walk unfamiliar city streets and undiscovered forest trails, encounter different smells, strange customs, dark, inscrutable faces.
